

Vision: A world where everyone has a decent place to live

Mission: Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat Catawba Valley brings people together to build homes, communities and hope.

Cornerstones: As a Christian housing organization inspired by the social ministry of the gospel, Habitat for Humanity of Catawba Valley is dedicated to the practice of:

- Dignity
 - In our relationships with homeowners and volunteers
 - In the quality of the houses we build
 - In our hand up, not hand out model
 - In the atmosphere created by the Habitat Community
- Community
 - In our pursuit of long term, sustainable partnerships
 - In the hospitality and inclusiveness of our workspaces
 - In our commitment to the Common Good
 - In our responsibility to convene key players in area around issue of affordable housing
- Stewardship
 - Of resources in good faith as a non-profit
 - For the benefit of our homeowners to keep costs low
 - Of the environment through green technology & sustainable design
- Service
 - As a means of working with, and not for, others
 - As a shared responsibility more so than a choice
 - As an opportunity to form participants into ambassadors for affordable housing
 - As a way of putting our faith into action
 - As a means to transformation of all involved to become more of whom God calls us to be

Isaiah 28:16-17

So this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;

the one who relies on it will never be stricken with panic.

I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line.
